

We are honored you are considering our wedding floral design services. At Millbrook Farm Flowers we believe in giving you the most beautiful, creative designs possible while helping you stay within your budget. There is a wide range of floral design possibilities depending on budget, wedding date, and the size of your event. Most couples that book with Millbrook Farm Flowers spend between 2500-3500 dollars (some spend more, some spend less). We have clients on a tight budget, take luxury weddings, and everything in between. Let's talk about your budget and how we can accomplish your wedding goals. We tend to design for events at venues with a natural outdoor setting, industrial, or garden wedding style. However, we are versatile, creative, and have 20 years of floral experience so please bring all your inspiration ideas from timeless and classic to current trends. We have a large supply of candles, bud vases, colorful glass vases, drapes, runners, chair sashes and offer full service design consultations and installation. In addition, we can supply ceremony backdrop structures such as hoops, arches, triangles, etc if your venue does not supply it.

The average prices are based on arrangements made with flowers available in the season of your wedding. Requesting premium flowers such as garden roses, lily of the valley, peonies, and orchids will increase your cost. Unless you have your heart set on a particular flower, I usually recommend seasonal flowers. There are many varieties that can give you a similar look and feel of more expensive blooms.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I know what budget range to set?

There are several great resources to help you research how much you can expect to pay. The Knot, Wedding Wire, Martha Weddings are a few websites with helpful information on what to expect. Our prices are competitive, but in line with the floral industry standards in the metro area. We may not be the lowest price quotes you receive, but our designs are truly custom created for your event and will absolutely deliver the wow factor you want to hear from your guests.

Why should we hire a designer and florist? DIY seems like an appealing option.

Flowers can be tricky! Sometimes they give the most experienced florist a hard time. They need to be ordered to arrive at the perfect time for your event and rehydrated using proper techniques to bring out their full beauty. Trust us, your wedding day is not the day to start the floral design learning curve. In Georgia, the weather is unforgiving to fussy blooms like hydrangeas, peonies, and hellebores yet anyone can buy them from the wholesaler. The last thing you want is floppy flowers stressing you out on your special day. Buying a ton of candles may seem like a good option. This is a lot of work to haul all those supplies to your venue, install and remove them. We advise you to enjoy your day and pamper yourself. Don't spend your time staying up the night before stressing about your flowers and reception décor. (That's our job!) PS floral design will ruin your manicure...

Why do I need a consultation and when should I schedule one?

During a consultation this is your time to describe your vision, go through your inspiration photos, and receive feedback about how we can make it a reality. This can be done through in person meetings (which is preferred) or zoom chat. The best time to schedule this is after you have selected your venue, bridal party members, and event color palette. You should have several inspiration photos or a mood board to provide us with an idea of what you are aiming for.

Who is responsible for clean-up at the end of the night?

This is highly variable from venue to venue. While the arrangements made are always yours to keep, some of the vases and containers will need to be returned. If you are ordering decor such as candles, lanterns, and runners, those items are being "rented" from Millbrook Farm Flowers. Depending on the venue, if we are required to take all of our items that evening a break down fee may apply. You will also be given the option to return items to our design studio after the event. If we decorate using items you have purchased for your ceremony or reception, you will be responsible for removing those items according to the venue agreement.
